

Bodywork Professional Development presents
CPD ~ Advanced Bodywork Series

Applications to Abdominal Surgery

Marty Ryan

London ~ 10 – 12 September 2010

First time in the UK! Many people have abdominal surgeries each year and manual therapy is typically not included in their post-surgery care. This course teaches the language of abdominal surgery and hands-on skills to optimize function in the abdomen and trunk after digestive, pelvic, and bariatric surgeries. Learn to discuss, palpate, and treat the anatomical, physiological, and energetic aftermaths of abdominal surgery. Observe and practice a complete treatment session including the intake interview, manual interventions, and post-treatment self-care. Grow your skills and attract a whole new category of clients!

Prerequisites:

- At least 1 Love Your Guts Seminars 3-day training completed (Edinburgh 2-day workshop is also acceptable). Certified Mayan Abdominal Massage, Chi Nei Tsang, or Structural Integration practitioners are also welcome to attend.
- At least 10 case studies related to the abdomen completed.
- Listen to 4-part Fundamentals of Abdominal Surgery lecture series prior to class. This teleseminar event is scheduled for early 2010 and will be ready for MP3 download by April of 2010

Marty is a passionate belly massage practitioner and instructor. He is founder and director of Love Your Guts Seminars - and has taught belly massage and palpatory anatomy seminars across the US since 1998. Marty also assists Leon Chaitow's manual therapy seminars in the US, and Gil Hedley's Somanautics workshops in the US and the UK.

Love Your Guts Seminars is a bodywork education company dedicated to bringing the world of the abdomen and viscera into a whole new light. We utilise high impact learning strategies to integrate whole body systems physiology and visceral anatomy information into a thoughtful and effective approach to belly massage. All seminars are presented with joy, laughter, gratitude, studiousness, clarity and most of all FUN! We invite everyone to truly Love Your Guts!
